

Anthony J. Celebrezze

Question Presented:

Whether the Arizona immigration law, S.B. 1070, is preempted by the federal Immigration and Nationality Act?

A WARM WELCOME TO ALL OF OUR GUESTS, INCLUDING THE CELEBREZZE FAMILY

PANEL OF JUDGES

We are pleased to welcome our esteemed panel of judges for the final round:

Judge Thomas Bryant

Third District Court of Appeals (Ret.)

Judge James G. Carr

U.S. District Court,
Northern District of Ohio

Judge John R. Willamowski

Third District Court of Appeals

COMPETITORS

Dan Jones, Petitioner

Dan is a second-year law student from Ashland, Ohio. Dan graduated from ONU's College of Arts in Sciences in 2010 with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and English Literature. His main interests are travelling (as much as possible on a student's budget), running, and spends time working at the library's circulation desk. Dan hopes to practice international business or immigration law after graduation.

Jacqueline Dobbert, Respondent

Jacqueline is from Greentown, Indiana. She graduated with a B.S. in biology from Manchester College. A little known fact about Jacqueline is that she went to college on an opera scholarship, and has performed at Carnegie Hall. Jacqueline also enjoys playing tennis and the piano. She plans to specialize in intellectual property law after graduation.

On behalf of the Ohio Northern University Pettit College of Law Moot Court Program, we would like to thank everyone who helped us with the competition. We greatly appreciate all of the hard work and support that the faculty and staff provided.

Many thanks to our faculty judges: Joanne C. Brant, Scott D. Gerber and Robert Thaxton.

Additionally, many warm thanks to Professor David W. Raack, Dean Mindi Wells, and Barbara J. DeAngelis for all of their assistance.

2011-2012

Moot Court Executive Board

Lindsey DiMuzio
Chief Justice

Andrea Brown
Administrative Justice

Robert F. Capovilla
Presiding Justice

Jennifer King
Associate Justice

Karrie Pratt
Associate Justice

Kyle Novak
Associate Justice

Ashley Rodabaugh
Associate Justice

Anthony J. Celebrezze 1910-1998

Ohio Northern College of Law Class of 1936

Born in Anzi, Italy on September 4, 1910, one of 13 children, Judge Celebrezze came to this country at the age of two. He attended public schools in Cleveland, Fenn College and John Carroll University and graduated from Ohio Northern University with LL.B. Degree in 1936. His activities in public affairs began upon his graduation from the College of Law when he joined the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation.

He entered general practice in 1939. His political start began his ascendancy in 1950 when he was elected to the Ohio Senate. His able work in this august body resulted in his reelection in 1952 as State Senator, and twice he was voted one of the top senators.

He was first elected Cleveland's mayor in 1953. He was the only major in the city's history to be elected to five consecutive terms.

Judge Celebrezze was elected president of the American Municipal Association (now the National League of Cities) in 1958, and served as president of the U.S. Conferences of Mayors in 1962.

In July of 1962, Celebrezze was appointed to the Cabinet post as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). He served in the Cabinets of both Presidents Kennedy and Johnson until August of 1965. During this time, Celebrezze was responsible for enactment of important social legislation, including the Medicare Act, and the Civil Rights Act of 1964. One of Celebrezze's most important achievements as secretary of HEW was separating the public assistance and child health and welfare functions from the Social Security Administration and transferring these programs to a new Welfare Administration. Under Celebrezze's watch, HEW was granted power to deny funds for any federal program, to any state, or institutions which practiced racial segregation.

Celebrezze took the oath of office as Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals on September 1, 1965. By Act of Congress, the federal building in Cleveland is named the Anthony J. Celebrezze Federal Building.

Upon retiring from the bench in 1995, Judge Celebrezze donated his judicial papers along with a lifetime of memorabilia to the College of Law. Ohio Northern dedicated the Anthony J. Celebrezze Judicial Archives Room on Saturday, April 17, 2004. The Archive houses papers from Judge Celebrezze's thirty years as a federal judge for the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. The room also holds a large collection of photographs, plaques, proclamations, and other tributes.

Anthony J. Celebrezze Appellate Advocacy Competition

Final Round

The Case of Arizona v. United States

Dan Jones vs. Jacqueline Dobbert

Petitioner

Respondent

Wednesday, April 4th, 2012

4:00 pm

Room 129

Ohio Northern University
Pettit College of Law

