

VINCENT A. CELEBREZZE (left) of 412 High St., Ypsilanti, attended swearing-in ceremonies in Washington Tuesday as his brother Anthony (center) became secretary of the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Anthony Celebrezze, a surprise pick of President Kennedy for the cabinet post, had been mayor of Cleveland, Ohio. Also at the ceremony were two other Celebrezze brothers, Joseph (right) and August.